VINTAGE can be defined as representing the best of a past time, and although we have changed as people throughout the years, our traditions and values have endured. The pages in this book will bring you back to memories of your childhood friendships, hobbies, and achievements. High school is a place for having new experiences, meeting new people, and making new memories, but the new comes from the old. We learn from the past, and future generations will learn from us. Make your high school experience count. When you look back on this vintage year, we hope it is one to remember.

EXCELLENCE is not an act
BUT A HABIT

2012 Class Officers

Michael Gannon, Jenna Weissman, Sophia Wirth, Hayden Bock, Tanner Skenderian. We cannot thank you enough for all of your hard work with the senior class. School events would not have been the same without you. Thank you for making our high school experience one to remember.
-Class of 2012

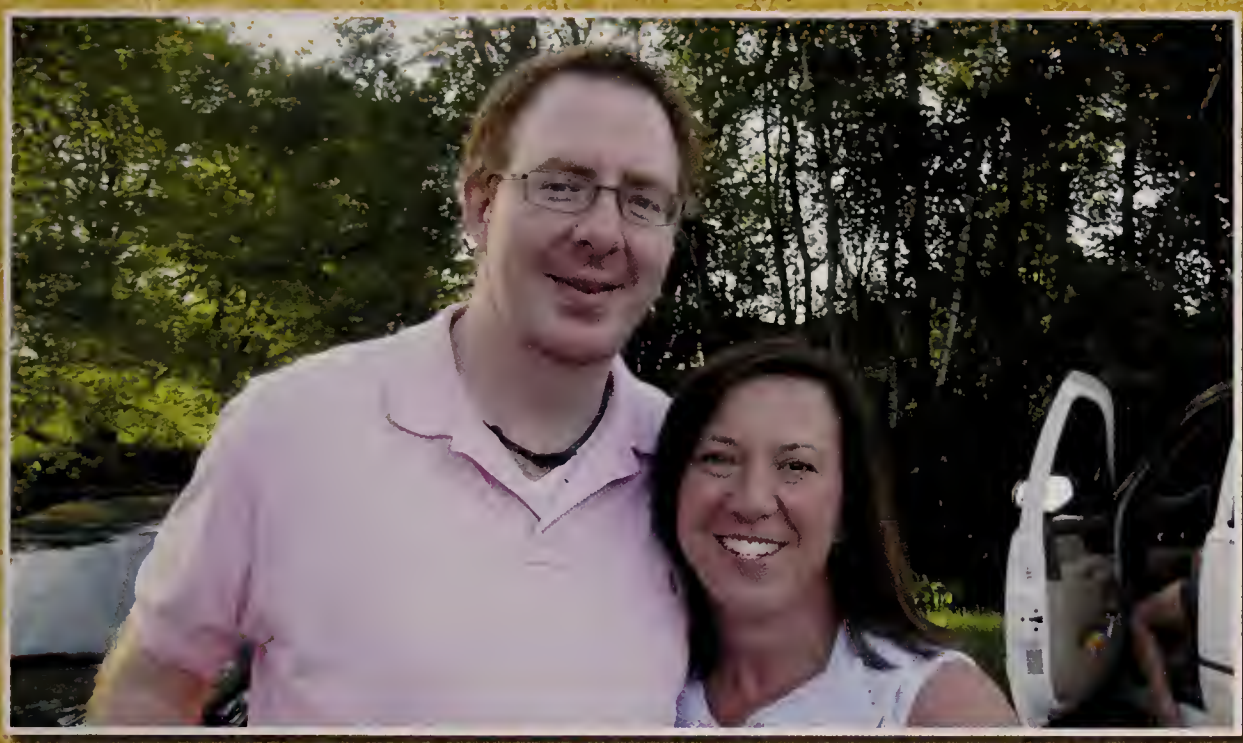
Ms. Cole

We appreciate everything you have done for us, and all that you have contributed to our school as a devoted Vice Principal.
-Class of 2012

Mr. Parker

We would like to thank you for everything you have done. Ever since our first day of high school, you have always brightened our day, and you will continue to until the moment you hand us our diplomas.
-Class of 2012

RECOGNITI



Faculty Advisors

Patrick Kelly, Sue Graham
We could not have asked for better faculty advisors to represent our class. We want to thank you for your leadership and hard work through the years. We are glad that we were able to share our high school experiences with you.
-Class of 2012

Parent Advisors

Carrie Dagres, Kathy Cramer, Jane Shay.
We would be lost without you; you have devoted countless hours planning events and helping us throughout our entire high school career. Prom and all of our events could not have happened without you.
-Class of 2012

Student Body Officers

Peter Scarpato, Reid Gilbard, Alden Harwood, Kayla Bruce, Adam Guerin, Maxwell Legocki.
Thank you for making our monthly assemblies enjoyable, and organizing all of the school dances. Our senior year would not have been as successful without you.

SENIORS

From the moment we walked through the doors freshman year, we defined ourselves as the class of 2012. We have been through everything together, and now our time has come to move on. We will look back and our high school experience will be vintage, but it won't be obsolete, just from another time.

"Dream as if you'll live forever, live as if you'll die today." –James Dean
As we near the end of high school, we begin to look back at how far we've traveled and feel gratitude towards the people who've accompanied us along the way. But for me, I can't possibly show enough appreciation for my family who has picked me back up so many times and supported me whenever I tripped up. I can't even say thanks enough to all my friends who've watched my back. And to my fellow classmates: We may walk our separate ways for now, and at times we may stray off our paths. But I know that all of us will reach that destination that each of us strives for and won't stop even after we do. "Be the hare that never stops." 2012.

I never thought this day would come that I have to say goodbye to everyone I have gone to school with for the past 4 years. High school has been awesome. I will miss everyone that has been around me and helped me to become the person I am today. I will miss the blasting of jojo with bomm and the near death experiences with sg. I will miss cooking class and how it changed my life for the better. Wouldn't have been the same without it. I hate to say goodbye to everyone that helped me have the greatest four years of me life so far, and wish all of you luck in college.

We keep moving forward, opening new doors, and doing new things, because we're curious and curiosity keeps leading us down new paths. - Walt Disney

Thank you all for the high school experience I've had. I am so grateful for the opportunity to have spent a wonderful three years here at Weston High School. Sometimes I wonder how my life would have played out had I not moved here, but I'm convinced that everything that happens in each of our lives happens for a reason -- a good one. Just keep trusting in what you believe in, and follow the voice of your heart. Class of 2012, I wish the best -- not just success, but true happiness -- for each of you in the future. Special thanks to my parents, sisters, friends from everywhere, and Him.

I'd say it's been a rough ride for me, moving from China and all that stuff. Well I did meet some very interesting people, and did stuff that I otherwise could not have done in China. I've learned things that I would not have otherwise learned, and did many other cool things. Thank you my teachers, friends from both ends of the ocean, and family for supporting me throughout my 12 year journey through school.

FACULTY & STAFF

One looks back with appreciation to the brilliant teachers, but with gratitude to those who touched our human feelings. The curriculum is so much necessary raw material, but warmth is the vital element for the growing plant and for the soul of the child. ~Carl Jung

Our faculty and staff at Weston High School have inspired us to become who we are today. We would be lost without their guidance.

"The unity demonstrated during the fall crew season was really outstanding. Though we were unable to prove ourselves during states due to weather difficulties, we were able to come out on top at the Head of the Charles. The increasing wins over the course of the season were a definite sign that we were able to come together as a team."

-Girls Captain Lizzie Becker

"The Wayland-Weston Varsity Boys had a season of commitment, perseverance, and teamwork. All boats successfully earned winning records, keeping the team motivated towards training for spring races. Highlights included the Varsity 4 placing 9th/77 and the Varsity 8 placing 47th/75 at Head of the Charles."

We had many great wins and unbelievable individual performances, but the success of the team was always put first. Every runner truly brought a unique character to our team, making it an extremely entertaining and memorable season."

"The seniors this year have been playing together since seventh grade. We had a really special group of guys that I can truly call my brothers. As a team every day we were excited to just play football. Our record was not anything special but one highlight of the season was going head to head with Wayland on Thanksgiving. This year was something special and will never be forgotten. Coldsteel."

"Although it was a tough year for us, under the circumstances we built our characters greatly as friends and as players. With a tough loss of key players and it being a first year coach, Weston Boys Soccer put up a good fight and had a lot of heart. Early in the season a key player by the name of Chason Timko sprained his ACL and was out for more then half the season, only to come back and score two goals in our only tournament game. The captains Adam Guerin, John Foody, Steve Iodice and Kyle Kachadurian all brought up the teams spirits when they were low after many hard losses. But, with injuries to 3 out of the 4 captains, other players began to step up. The end of the season yielded suprising results, tying Concord Carlilse with a wonderful goal by Sam Cekala was a highlight of this few game streak of magic. Tom McEnery was a first time coach in High School soccer, and we only expect him to have more success from this time on."

"The volleyball team this year was more successful than we have ever been before. Overcoming nerves on the court was a struggle for us, but once nerves were out of the way, we were focused and ready to play. In the past, many have not taken our team seriously, but this year we had more fans and support than ever, and I think we're starting to make a name for ourselves. The volleyball team has come a long way since the program started only a few years ago, and this year we were a legitimate threat to teams who never thought twice about us before."

"The Varsity Basketball team this year had a record that did not exactly reflect the amount of work the team put in every single day at practice and the games that came down to the final few seconds or even overtime. This year was meant to change the culture of Weston Basketball and towards the end of the season, the team started to come together and realize the amount of focus and dedication needed to have a successful team. "Weston Girls Varsity Basketball is probably one of the hardest working teams at Weston High School. Our record wasn't the most desirable, but every girl on the team has grown and improved. This year was a transition year; we had a new coach and a very young team. We had some great victories over DCL small teams such as CC and Wayland. Throughout this season we have stuck together and created memories to last a lifetime. I can't wait to see what next year will bring!"

"Our new coaching staff brought new insights and traditions to our team making it more unified than ever before. Although we fell short of our ultimate goal, I see teamwork, talent, and drive making Weston Hockey's future promising. We are more than just a team, we are brothers."

"The men of the Tide know a thing or two about hard work leading to success. We were pushed to our limits, forced to overcome our weaknesses, and then we drank the sweet nectar of victory. An undefeated season, a DCL championship, and a Division II State championship as well; it doesn't get much better than that. Every individual added something to the team and our vast numbers made for quite the army. Look out for Weston in the future because the tide is doing nothing but rising."
~Senior Tyler Lewtan

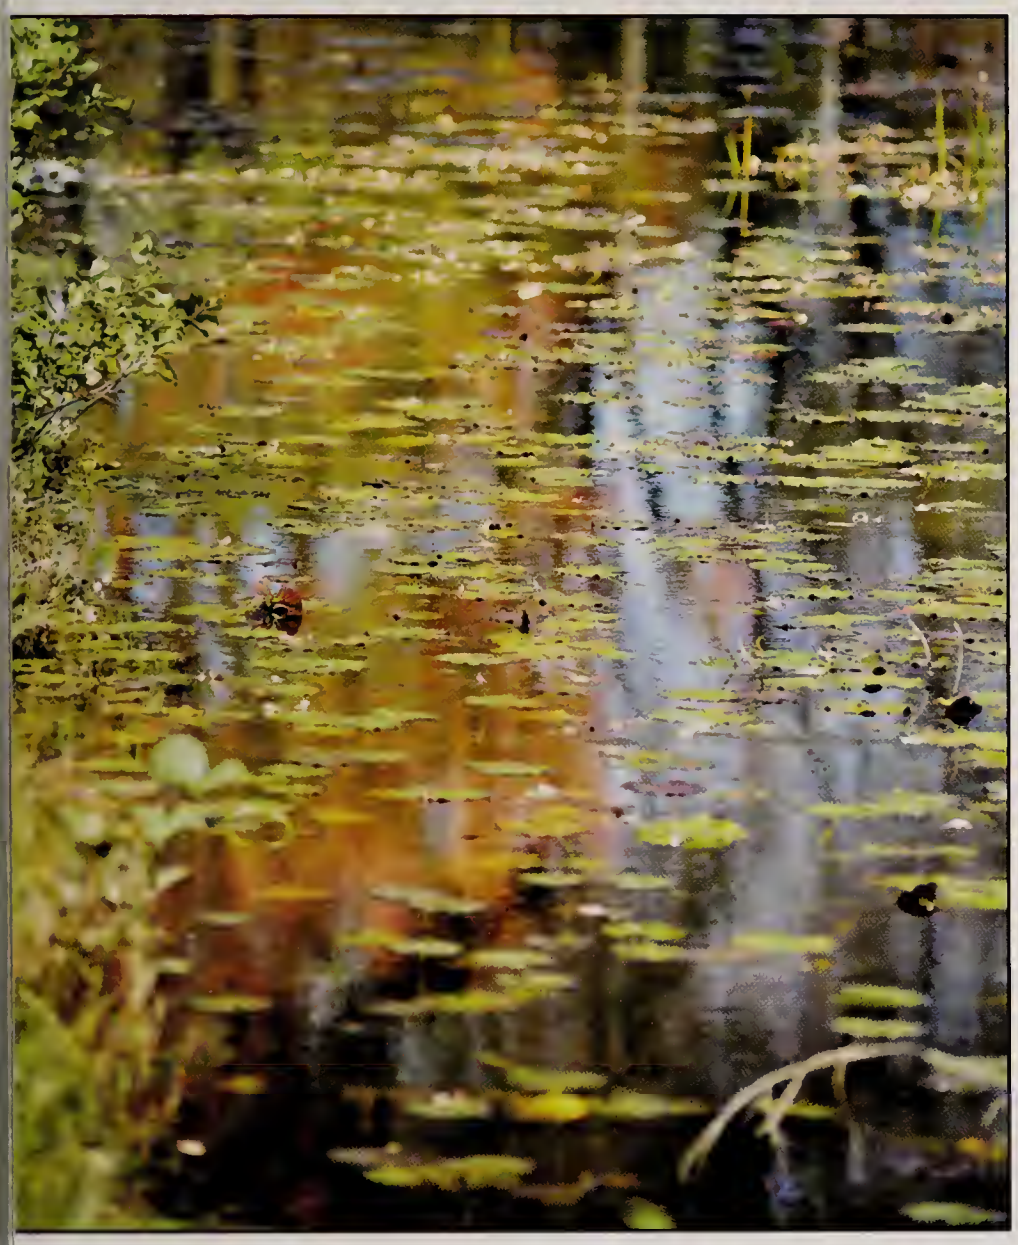
ACTIVITIES & CLUBS



Weston High School is filled with students who are driven, intellectual, athletic, creative, and hardworking. The student leaders set an example for everyone, the artists entertain and amaze, and the athletes and intellectuals inspire. An abundance of talent roams the hallways, and makes us proud to be part of such a unique group. "When we allow ourselves to exist truly and fully, we sting the world with our vision and challenge it with our own ways of being." - Thomas Moore

Weston High School students sponsored the 6th annual Pumpkin Festival, again this year. This event benefits Camp Sunshine located in Casco, Maine. Camp Sunshine is a program designed for the rehabilitation and recuperation of entire families with children who have life-threatening illnesses. In their week away; the entire family gets to experience time together without the stress of hospital beds and doctor's appointments. The fund raising efforts of the Pumpkin Festival make that possible for an incredible number of people.

CAREER DAY

This biennial event began in 2008 and continues to evolve to meet the needs of young people who will soon be making career decisions. This year 138 town residents, Weston graduates, and friends of faculty volunteered to come to our school to share their experiences. They gave our students and faculty insights into an amazing array of careers.

"take what you can from your dreams
Make them real as anything
It takes the work out of the courage" ~ Dave Matthews Band

Sweet Emma you have brought us such joy and pride. There are no words to say how much we will miss you next year but as you know "where you go we go" and we will be watching from the sidelines as you take on the world! What a privilege to be along for the ride! With great love, Mom and Dad

I'm equal parts proud and terrified that you're graduating (Probably more proud than terrified...) It's just scary to realize that your kid sister is by no means a kid any longer. Every day you seem more and more mature. And now you're graduating. I'm so excited to find what the future holds for you. You're not just my sister, but my best friend. Love Always, Carter

Em, It is hard for me to put into words the happiness and pride I have in watching you grow up. Know that no matter what, no matter when, I am always here for you and love you completely. I am beyond lucky to have such an intelligent, amazing and hysterical little sister. Love, Will

Marquis A. Caesar

Munchkin, From the day you were born, you've been flying high. Your first flight at six days old had me terrified, but you slept the whole way.Your first day of school was so hard for me and I thought you would be scared, however, you went with no concerns and I cried to watch my baby boy no longer need me. I cried again as you boarded that plane alone to travel to Brazil.You have grown to be such an independent person and always making me PROUD. So now that you have the biggest heart and wingspan to fly away, soar through life and enjoy every day.You'll always be my little soldier. Little Caesar, happy birthday and congratulations on graduating from Weston and good luck at Lynn University.
Love always, Mommie

Big Brother, Congratulations on starting the second generation at Weston. I am right behind you, as always. Baby Brother

Abigail H. Clutz

Where did the time go? Our once painfully shy little girl is all grown up. We are so very proud of you and all your accomplishments Abs. It has been an amazing journey so far, and we look forward to many exciting and happy times ahead.

XO Mum, Dad and Hunter (and Duff and Jude)

PS: Special hugs to Molly, you will always have a special place in our hearts. And of course Ilana and Kayla --all four of you are amazing young women.

Congratulations Class of 2012

Jared Fong

Jared, Congratulations! Take it from your brother--you have the whole world at your fingertips. Travel. Find your passions. Be the exception to the rule. Enjoy the next four years and continue to make us proud...they go by in a blink of an eye. - Love, Jory

Congratulations, Jared--We are so proud of you and so excited for you as you enter the next phase of your life -- college and beyond! We know that you will have an amazing time at school. Be confident, for there is nothing that you can't do if you put your mind to it. We know that you will be successful in your endeavors. Stay true to yourself, as you have always "marched to your own beat." You have always been a sensitive and caring person. We love you so much, and we'll miss you.

Love, Mom & Dad

Jared, Congratulations on graduating and getting into Gettysburg. Thanks for showing me the ropes of high school and I'm already excited to visit you next year at school. Keep being yourself in college and don't forget about us at home. Your bro, Jordan

Passion is your gift. We see it in all that you do - your running, grades, sense of humor, friendships, empathy and soul. Pursue it to define your interests. Share it to define your friends. Use it to lift up others. Mix it with honesty and humilty. Life will try to speed up the clock but remember to run your own race. Think about Jammy's "dash" and live for that. We are all proud of you and love you for this and so much more.
